Gotive appointed Master Distributor for Germany

Bratislava, Munich, Cologne, May 26, 2003

GOTIVE, the producer of innovative rugged handheld computers, has made another step in the distribution of its products. The well-established and renown system house in Cologne - the company PDS GmbH has been appointed as the Master Distributor, as well as the provider of hardware service and warranty processes for Gotive products in Germany.

The company PDS GmbH, the system solution partner for major logistics enterprises like Deutsche Post or HERMES Versand a.o., provides an efficient path for Gotive to enter the logistics market. It also offers a good platform for other applications and markets, like for example distribution and mobile sales, field services and utilities, security services etc. Moreover, PDS disposes of range of complete solutions for professional applications and communication.
